

A Decade of Chaplaincy:
Change and Challenge

*A Major International Conference to Celebrate
Ten Years of the Scottish Journal of Healthcare
Chaplaincy*

Keynote Speakers:

Professor Anne Ulanov

Pastoral Response to Terrorism

Rev Mark Cobb

Change and Challenge

To be held in

CRIEFF HYDRO HOTEL

12th to 13th March 2007

Fee: £185

Return this form before
Friday 12th January 2007

By Email to journal@sach.org.uk

By Post To:
SJHC Conference Booking
NHS Highland Chaplaincy Department
Raigmore Hospital
Inverness
IV2 3TE

The Key Speakers:

Anne Ulanov is Professor of Psychiatry and Religion at Union Theological Seminary, New York, and a Jungian Analyst author of books on prayer and psychology.

Mark Cobb is Chaplain and Director of Professional Services, Sheffield Teaching Hospitals NHS Trust, author of books on chaplaincy and member of the Chaplaincy Academic Accreditation Board.

Workshops:

- 1) Acute medicine
- 2) End of life Issues facing an Aging Population
- 3) Mental Health and Community Chaplaincy
- 4) Pregnancy and Birth
- 5) Paediatrics
- 6) Palliative Care

A Little Bit about the Accommodation:

Crieff Hydro is a four star hotel with a Victorian Spa, gym and extensive grounds in the heart of Scotland. The Conference fee includes use of the hotel's facilities, lunch both days, and a Scottish breakfast. To celebrate the Journal and in appreciation of its success there will be a full conference dinner with after-dinner speeches and a complimentary glass of wine.

Please Book Early – Places are limited and there is a Closing Date on Applications of Friday 12th January 2007

Full Name
Address
Phone Contact
Email
Any dietary requirements?
Any other requirements?
Fee of £185 must be paid in advance. Fee enclosed? Y/N Cheque payable to 'SJHC Conference Fund'
Or contact name and address to which invoice may be sent: